

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL

CHAPTER 28, LAWS OF 1909.

$25. Legislative Manual.— The secretary of state. at the expense of the state, shall annually prepare and publish the legislative manual, and a map of the state. exhibiting the route of all railroads and canals that are completed or in course of construction. The manual shall contain the constitutions of the United States and of the state of New York, diagrams of the senate and assembly chambers, and such other information of the nature heretofore published therein, as he may consider useful, and shall be printed and bound in substantially the same style Within two weeks after the commencement as beretofore of each regular session of the legislature, and earlier, if practicable, he shall deliver a copy of the manual and map to each member and officer of the legislature, and to each state officer entitled to the session laws, with the name of each officer or member lettered on the copy of the manual sent to him.

- 1. First of all have granted to God, and, for us and for our heirs forever, have confirmed, by this our present charter, that the English church shall be free and shall have its rights intact and its liberties uninfringed upon. And thus we will that it be observed. As is apparent from the fact that we, spontaneously and of our own free will, before discord broke out between ourselves and our barons, did grant and by our charter confirm - and did cause the lord pope Innocent III. to confirm - freedom of elections, which is considered most important and most necessary to the church of England. Which charter both we ourselves shall observe, and we will that it be observed with good faith by our heirs forever. We have also granted to all free men of our realm, on the part of ourselves and our heirs forever, all the subjoined liberties, to have and to hold, to them and to their heirs. from us and from our heirs:
- 2. If any one of our earls or barons, or of others holding from us in chief through military service, shall die; and if, at the time of his death, his heir be of full age and owe a relief: he shall have his inheritance by paying the old relief; the heir, namely, or the heirs of an earl, by paying one hundred pounds for the whole barony of an earl; the heir or heirs of a baron, by paying one hundred pounds for the whole barony; the heir or heirs of a knight, by paying one hundred shillings at most for a whole knight's fee; and he who shall owe less shall give less, according to the ancient custom of fees.
- 3. But if the heir of any of the above persons shall be under age and in wardship,—when he comes of age he shall have his inheritance without relief and without fine.
- 4. The administrator of the land of such heir who shall be under age shall take none but reasonable issues from the land of the heir, and reasonable customs and services; and this without destruction and waste of men or goods. And if we shall have committed the custody of any such land to the sheriff or to any other man who ought to be responsible to us for the issues of it, and he cause destruction or waste to what is in his charge: we will fine him, and the land shall be handed over to two lawful and discreet men of that fee who shall answer to us, or to him to whom we shall have referred them, regarding those issues. And if we shall have given or sold to any one the custody of any such land, and he shall have caused destruction or waste to it,—he shall lose that custody, and it shall be given to two lawful and discreet men of that fee, who likewise shall answer to us, as has been explained.

- 5. The administrator, moreover, so long as he may have the custody of the land, shall keep in order, from the issues of that land, the houses, parks, warrens, lakes, mills, and other things pertaining to it. And he shall restere to the heir when he comes to full age, his whole land stocked with plows and wainnages, according as the time of the wainnage requires and the issues of the land will reasonably permit.
- 6. Heirs may marry without disparagement; so nevertheless, that, before the marriage is contracted, it shall be announced to the relations by blood of the heir himself.
- 7. A widow, after the death of her husband, shall straightway, and without difficulty, have her marriage portion and her inheritance, nor shall she give any thing in return for her dowry, her marriage portion, or the inheritance which belonged to her, and which she and her husband held on the day of the death of that husband And she may remain in the house of her husband, after his death, for forty days; within which her dowry shall be paid over to her.

- 8. No widow shall be forced to marry when she prefers to live without a husband; so, however, that she gives security not to marry without our consent if she hold from us, or the consent of the lord from whom she holds, if she hold from another.
- 9. Neither we nor our bailiffs shall seize any revenue for any debt, so long as the chattels of the debtor suffice to pay the debt; nor shall the sponsors of that debtor be distrained so long as that chief debtor has enough to pay the debt. But if the chief debtor fail in paying the debt, not having the wherewithal to pay it, the sponsors shall answer for the debt. And, if they shall wish, they may have the lands and revenues of the debtor until satisfaction shall have been given them for the debt previously paid for him; unless the chief debtor shall show that he is quit in that respect towards those same sponsors.
- 10. If any one shall have taken any sum, great or small, as a loan from the Jews, and shall die before that debt is paid,—that debt shall not bear interest so long as the heir, from whomever he may hold, shall be under age. And if the debt fall into our hands, we shall take nothing save the chattel contained in the deed.
- 11. And if any one dies owing a debt to the Jews, his wife shall have her dowry, and shall restore nothing of that debt. But if there shall remain children of that dead man, and they shall be under age, the necessaries shall be provided for them according to the nature of the dead man's holding; and, from the residue, the debt shall be paid, saving the service due to the lords. In like manner shall be done concerning debts that are due to others besides Jews.
 - 12. No scutage or aid shall be imposed in our realm unless by the common counsel of our realm; except for redeeming our body, and knighting our eldest son, and marrying once our eldest daughter. And for these purposes there shall only be given a reasonable aid. In like manner shall be done concerning the aids of the city of London.

13. And the city of London shall have all its old liberties and free customs as well by land as by water. Moreover we will and grant that all other cities and burroughs, and towns and ports, shall have all their liberties and free customs.

14. And, in order to have the common counsel of the realm in the matter of assessing an aid otherwise in the aforesaid cases, or of assessing a scutage,—we shall cause, under seal through our letters, the archbishops, bishops, abbots, earls, and greater barons to be summoned for a fixed day—for a term, namely, at least forty days distant,—and for a fixed place. And, moreover, we shall cause to be summoned in general, through our sheriffs and bailiffs, all those who hold of us in chief. And in all those letters of summons, we shall express the cause of the summons. And when a summons has thus been made, the business shall be proceeded with on the day appointed according to the counsel of those who shall be present, even though not all shall come who were summoned.

15. We will not allow any one henceforth to take an aid from his freemen save for the redemption of his body, and the knighting of his eldest son, the marrying, once, of his eldest daughter; and, for these purposes, there shall only be given a reasonable aid.

16. No one shall be forced to do more service for a knight's fee, or for another free holding, than is due from it.

- 17. Common pleas shall not follow our court but shall be held in a certain fixed place.
- 18. Assizes of novel disseisin, of mort d'ancestor, and of darrein presentment shall not be held save in their own counties, and in this way: we, or our chief justice, if we shall be absent from the kingdom, shall send two justices through each county four times a year; they, with four knights from each county, chosen by the county, shall hold the aforesaid assizes in the county, and on the day and at the place of the county court.
- 19. And if on the day of the county court the aforesaid assizes can not be held, a sufficient number of knights and free tenants, from those who were present at the county court on that day, shall remain, so that through them the judgments may be suitably given, according as the matter may have been great or small.
- 20. A freeman shall only be amerced for a small offence according to the measure of that offence. And for a great offence he shall be amerced according to the magnitude of the offence, saving his contenement; and a merchant, in the same way, saving his merchandize. And a villein, in the same way, if he fall under our mercy, shall be amerced saving his wainnage. And none of the aforesaid fines shall be imposed save upon oath of upright men from the neighborhood.
- 21. Earls and barons shall not be amerced save through their peers, and only according to the measure of the offence.
- 22. No clerk shall be amerced for his lay tenement except according to the manner of the other persons aforesaid; and not according to the amount of his ecclesiastical benefice.
 - 23. Neither a town nor a man shall be forced to make bridges over the rivers, with the exception of those who from of old and of right ought to do it.

- 24. No sheriff, constable, coroners, or other bailiffs of ours shall hold the pleas of our crown.
- 25. All counties, hundreds, wapentakes, and trithings—our demesne manors being excepted—shall continue according to the old farms, without any increase at all.
- 26. If any one holding from us a lay fee shall die, and our sheriff or bailiff can show our letters patent containing our summons for the debt which the dead man owed to us.—our sheriff or bailiff may be allowed to attach and enroll the chattels of the dead man to the value of that debt, through view of lawful men; in such way, towever, that nothing shall be removed thence until the debt is paid which was plainly owed to us. And the residue shall be left to the executors that they may carry out the will of the dead man. And if nothing is owed to us by him, all the chattels shall go to the use prescribed by the deceased, saving their reasonable portions to his wife and children.
- 27. If any freeman shall have died intestate his chattels shall be distributed through the hands of his near relatives and friends, by view of the church; saving to any one the debts which the dead man owed him.
- 28. No constable or other bailiff of ours shall take the corn or other chattels of any one except he straightway give money for them, or can be allowed a respite in that regard by the will of the seller.
- 29. No constable shall force any knight to pay money for castle-ward if he be willing to perform that ward in person, or he for a reasonable cause not being able to perform it himself through another proper man. And if we shall have led or sent him on a military expedition, he shall be quit of ward according to the amount of time during which, through us, he shall have been in military service.

- 30. No sheriff or bailiff of ours, nor any one else, shall take the horses or carts of any freeman for transport, unless by the will of that freeman.
- 31. Neither we nor our bailiffs shall take another's wood for castles or for other private uses, unless by the will of him to whom the wood belongs.
- 32. We shall not hold the lands of those convicted of felony longer than a year and a day; and then the lands shall be restored to the lords of the flefs.
- 33. Henceforth all the weirs in the Thames and Medway, and throughout all England, save on the sea coast. shall be done away with entirely.
- 34. Henceforth the writ which is called Praecipe shall not be served on any one for any holding so as to cause a free man to lose his court.
- 35. There shall be one measure of wine throughout our whole realm, and one measure of ale and one measure of corn—namely, the London quart;—and one width of dyed and russet and hauberk cloths—Namely, two ells below the selvage. And with weights, moreover, it shall be as with measures.
- 36. Henceforth nothing shall be given or taken for a writ of inquest in a matter concerning life or limb; but it shall be conceded gratis, and shall not be denied.
- 37. If any one hold of us in fee-farm, or in socage, or in burkage, and hold land of another by military service, we shall not, by reason of that fee-farm, or socage, or burkage, have the wardship of his heir or of his land which is held in fee from another. Nor shall we have the wardship of that fee-farm, or socage, or burkage unless that fee-farm owe military service. We shall not, by reason of some petit serjeanty which someone holds of us through the service of giving us knives or arrows or the like, have the wardship of his heir or of the land which he holds of another by military service.

- 38. No bailiff, on his own simple assertion, shall beneeforth put any one to his law, without producing faithful witnesses in evidence.
- 39. No freeman shall be taken, or imprisoned, or discized, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any way harmed—nor will we go upon or send upon him—save by the lawful judgment of his peers or by the law of the land.
- 40. To none will we sell, to none deny or delay, right or justice.
- 41. All merchants may safely and securely go out of England, and come into England, and delay and pass through England, as well by land as by water, for the purpose of buying and selling, free from all evil taxes, subject to the ancient and right customs save in time of war, and if they are of the land at war against us. And if such be found in our land at the beginning of the war, they shall be held, without harm to their bodies and goods, until it shall be known to us or our chief justice how the merchants of our land are to be treated who shall, at that time, be found in the land at war against us. And if ours shall be safe there, the others shall be safe in our land.
- 42. Henceforth any person, saving fealty to us, may go out of our realm and return to it, safely and securely, by land and by water, except perhaps for a brief period in time of war, for the common good of the realm. But prisoners and outlaws are excepted according to the law of the realm; also people of a land at war against us, and the merchants, with regard to whom shall be done as we have said.

- 43. If any one hold from any escheat—as from the honour of Wallingford, Nottingham, Boloin, Lancaster, or the other escheats which are in our hands and are baronics—and shall die, his heir shall not give another relief, nor shall he perform for us other service than he would perform for a baron if that barony were in the hand of a baron; and we shall hold it in the same way in which the baron has held it.
- 44. Persons dwelling without the forest shall not henceforth come before the forest justices, through common summonses, unless they are impleaded or are the sponsors of some person or persons attached for matters concerning the forest.
- 45. We will not make men justices, constables, sheriffs, or bailiffs, unless they are such as know the law of the realm, and are minded to observe it rightly.
- 46. All barons who have founded abbeys for which they have charters of the kings of England, or ancient right of tenure, shall have, as they ought to have, their custody when vacant.
- 47. All forests constituted as such in our time shall straightway be annulled; and the same shall be done for river banks made into places of defence by us in our time.
- 48. All evil customs concerning forests and warrens, and concerning foresters and warreners, sheriffs and their servants, river banks and their guardians, shall straightway be inquired into in each county, through twelve sworn knights from that county, and shall be eradicated by them, entirely, so that they shall never be renewed, within forty days after the inquest has been made; in such manner that we shall first know about them, or our justice if we be not in England.

- 49. We shall straightway return all hostages and charters which were delivered to us by Englishmen as a surety for peace or faithful service.
- 50. We shall entirely remove from their bailiwicks the relatives of Gerard de Athyes, so that they shall henceforth have no bailiwick in England: Engelard de Cygnes, Andrew Peter and Gyon de Chanceles, Gyon de Cygnes, Geoffrey de Martin and his brothers, Philip Mark and his brothers, and Geoffrey his nephew, and the whole following of them.
- 51. And straightway after peace is restored we shall remove from the realm all the foreign soldiers, cross-bowmen, servants, hirelings, who may have come with horses and arms to the harm of the realm.
- 52. If any one shall have been disseized by us, or removed, without a legal sentence of his peers, from his lands, eastles, liberties or lawful right, we shall straightway restore them to him. And if a dispute shall arise concerning this matter it shall be settled according to the judgment of the twenty five barons who are mentioned below as sureties for the peace. But with regard to all those things of which any one was, by king Henry our father or king Richard our brother, disseized or dispossessed without legal judgment of his peers, which we have in our hand or which others hold, and for which we ought to give a guarantee: We shall have respite until the common term for crusaders. Except with regard to those concerning which a plea was moved, or an inquest made by our order, before we took the cross. But when we return from our pilgrimage, or if, by chance, we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway then show full justice regarding them.
- 53. We shall have the same respite, moreover, and in the same manner, in the matter of showing justice with regard to forests to be annulled and forests to remain, which Henry our father or Richard our brother constituted; and in the matter of wardships of lands which belong to the fee of another—wardships of which kind we have hitherto enjoyed by reason of the fee which some one held from us in military service;—and in the matter of abbeys founded in the fee of another than ourselves—in which the lord of the fee may say that he has jurisdiction. And when we return, or if we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway exhibit full justice to those complaining with regard to these matters.

54. No one shall be taken or imprisoned on account of the appeal of a woman concerning the death of another than her husband.

55. All fines imposed by us unjustly and contrary to the law of the land, and all amerciaments made unjustly and contrary to the law of the land, shall be altogether remitted, or it shall be done with regard to them according to the judgment of the twenty five barons mentioned below as sureties for the peace, or according to the judgment of the majority of them together with the aforesaid Stephen archbishop of Canterbury, if he can be present, and with others whom he may wish to associate with himself for this purpose. And if he cannot be present, the affair shall nevertheless proceed without him; in such way that, if one or more of the said twenty five barons shall be concerned in a similar complaint, they shall be removed as to this particular decision, and, in their place, for this purpose alone, others shall be substituted who shall be chosen and sworn by the remainder of those twenty five.

56. If we have disseized or dispossessed Welshmen of their lands or liberties or other things without legal shall straightway be restored to them. And if a dispute shall arise concerning this, then action shall be taken upon it in the March through judgment of their peers—concerning English holdings according to the law of England, concerning Welsh holdings according to the law of Wales, concerning holdings in the March according to the law of the law of the March. The Welsh shall do likewise with regard to us and our subjects.

- 57. But with regard to all those things of which any of the Welsh was, by king Henry our father or king Richard our brother, disseized or dispossessed without legal judgment of his peers, which we have in our hand or which others hold, and for which we ought to give a guarantee: we shall have respite until the common term for crusaders. Except with regard to those concerning which a plea was moved, or an inquest made by our order, before we took the cross. But when we return from our pilgrimage, or if, by chance, we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway then show full justice regarding them, according to the laws of Wales and the aforesaid districts.
- 58. We shall straightway return the son of Llewelin and all the Welsh hostages, and the charters delivered to us as surety for the peace.
- 59. We shall act towards Alexander king of the Scots regarding the restoration of his sisters, and his hostages, and his liberties and his lawful right, as we shall act towards our other barons of England; unless it ought to be otherwise according to the charters which we hold from William, his father, the former king of the Scots. And this shall be done through judgment of his peers in our court.

- 60. Moreover all the subjects of our realm, clergy as well as laity, shall, as far as pertains to them, observe with regard to their vassals, all these aforesaid customs and liberties which we have decreed shall, as far as pertains to us, be observed in our realm with regard to our own.
- 61. Inasmuch as, for the sake of God, and for the bettering of our realm, and for the more ready healing of the discord which has arisen between us and our barons. we have made all these aforesaid concessions,-wishing them to enjoy for ever the entire and firm stability, we make and grant to them the following security: that the barons, namely, may elect at their pleasure twenty five barons from the realm, who ought, with all their strength, to observe, maintain and cause to be observed. the peace and privileges which we have granted to them and confirmed by this our present charter. In such wise, namely, that if we, or our justice, or our bailiffs, or any one of our servants shall have transgressed against any one in any respect, or shall have broken some one of the articles of peace or security, and our transgression shall have been shown to four barons of the aforesaid twenty five: those four barons shall come to us, or, if we are abroad, to our justice, showing to us our error; and they shall ask us to cause that error to be amended without delay. And if we do not amend that error, or, we being abroad, if our justice do not amend it within a term of forty days from the time when it was shown to us or, we being abroad, to our justice: the aforesaid four barons shall refer the matter to the remainder of the twenty five barons, and those twenty five barons, with the whole land in common, shall distrain and oppress us in every way in their power,namely, by taking our castles, lands and possessions and in every other way that they can, until amends shall have been made according to their judgment. Saving the persons of ourselves, our queen and our children. And when amends shall have been made they shall be in accord with us as they had been previously. And whoever of the land wishes to do so, shall swear that in carrying out all the aforesaid measures he will obey the mandates of the aforesaid twenty five barons, and that, with them, he will oppress us to the extent of his power. And, to any one who wishes to do so, we publiely and freely give permission to swear; and we will never prevent any one from swearing. Moreover, all those in the land who shall be unwilling themselves and of their own accord to swear to the twenty five barons as to distraining and oppressing us with them: such ones we shall make to swear by our mandate, as has been said. And if any one of the twenty five barons shall die, or leave the country, or in any other way be prevented from carrying out the aforesaid measures,the remainder of the aforesaid twenty five barons shall choose another in his place, according to their judgment, who shall be sworn in the same way as the others. Moreover, in all things entrusted to those twenty five barons to be carried out, if those twenty five shall be present and chance to disagree among themselves with regard to some matter, or if some of them, having been summoned shall be unwilling or unable to be present: that which the majority of those present shall decide or decree shall be considered binding and valid, just as if all the twenty five had consented to it. And the aforesaid twenty five shall swear that they will faithfully observe all the foregoing and will cause them to be observed to the extent of their power. And we shall obtain nothing from any one, either through ourselves or through another, by which any of those concessions and liberties may be revoked or diminished. And if any such thing shall have been obtained, it shall be vain and invalid, and we shall never make use of it either through ourselves or through another.

- 62. And we have fully remitted to all, and pardoned, all the ill-will, anger and rancour which have arisen between us and our subjects, clergy and laity, from the time of the struggle. Moreover we have fully remitted to all, clergy and laity, and—as far as pertains to us—have pardoned fully all the transgressions committed, on the occasion of that same struggle, from Easter of the sixteenth year of our reign until the re-establishment of peace. In witness of which, moreover, we have caused to be drawn up for them letters patent of lord Stephen, archbishop of Canterbury, lord Henry, archbishop of Dublin, and the aforesaid bishops and master Pandulf, regarding that surety and the aforesaid concessions.
- 63. Wherefore we will and firmly decree that the English church shall be free, and that the subjects of our realm shall have and hold all the aforesaid liberties, rights and concessions, duly and in peace, freely and quietly, fully and entirely, for themselves and their heirs, from us and our heirs in all matters and in all places, forever, as has been said. Moreover it has been sworn, on our part as well as on the part of the barons, that all these above mentioned provisions shall be observed with good faith and without evil intent. The witnesses being the above mentioned and many others. Given through our hand, in the plain called Runnimede between Windsor and Stanes, on the fifteenth day of June, in the seventeenth year of our reign.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS

JULY 4, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Moreover it has been sworn, on our part as well as on the part of the barons, that all these above mentioned provisions shall be observed with good faith and without evil intent. DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS

JULY 4, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes: and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the reople at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world: For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

[1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.]

The first paragraph of section three of article I of the Constitution of the United States, and so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to filling vacancies are amended by the seventeenth amendment to the Constitution, page 36.

- 2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second? Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one-third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments [until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.]
- 3. No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.
- 4. The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote unless they be equally divided.
- 5. The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.
- 6. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.
- 7. Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

SECTION 4.

1. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

3. Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

4. Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

1. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

Coxe v. McClenachan, 3 Dall., 478; Kilbourn v. Thompson, 163 U. S., 168; Williamson v. U. S., 207 U. S., 425.

2. No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

SECTION 7.

 All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Field v. Clark, 143 U. S., 649; Twin City Bank v. Nebeker, 167 U. S., 196; Millard v. Roberts, 202 U. S., 429; Flint v. Stone Tracy Co., 220 U. S., 107.

- 2 Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall, before it become a Law, be presented to the President of the United States: If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal. and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten Days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.
- 3. Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of Adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

Pald v. Clark, 143 U. S., 649; United States v. Ballin, 144 U. S., 1; Fourteen Diamond Rings v. United States, 183 U. S., 176.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.

1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice-President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows:

2 Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

Chisholm, ex., v. Georgia, 2 Dall., 419; Leitensdorfer et al. v. Webb, 21, How., 176; Ex parte Siebold, 100 U. S., 271; In re Green, 134 U. S., 377; McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U. S., 1.

*The Electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by Ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an Inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each; which List they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the Seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall, in the Presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the Certificates, and the Votes shall then be counted. The Person having the greatest Number of Votes shall be the President, if such Number be a Majority of the whole Number of Electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such Majority, and have an equal Number of Votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately chuse by Ballot one of them for President; and if no Person have a Majority, then from the five highest on the List the said House shall in like Manner chuse the President. But in chusing the President, the Votes shall be taken by States, the Representation from each State having one Vote; A quorum for this Purpose shall consist of a Member or Members from two-thirds of the States, and a Majority of all the States shall be necessary to a Choice. In every Case, after the Choice of the President, the Person having the greatest Number of Votes of the Electors shall be the Vice President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal Votes, the Senate shall chuse from them by Ballot the Vice-President.

- 3. The Congress may determine the Time of chusing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States.
- 4. No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any Person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

English v. The Trustees of the Sailors' Snug Harbor, 3 Pet., 99.

5. In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

6. The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services, a Compensation, which shall neither be encreased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Polloek v. Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., 157 U.S., 429.

7. Before he enter on the Execution of his Office, he shall take the following Oath or Affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

In ra Neagle, 135 U.S., 1.

SECTION 2.

1. The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the United States; he may require the Opinion, in writing, of the principal Officer in each of the executive Departments, upon any subject relating to the Duties of their respective Offices, and he shall have Power to grant Reprieves and Pardons for Offenses against the United States, except in Cases of Impeachment.

Van Riswick, 92 U. S., 202; Eastis v. Bolles, 150 U. S., 361.

2. He shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law: but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments.

3. The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

U. S. v. Kirkpatrick et al., 9 Wh., 720.

SECTION 3.

He shall from time to time give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their Consideration such Measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary Occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in Case of Disagreement between them, with Respect to the Time of Adjournment, he may adjourn them to such Time as he shall think proper;

he shall receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers; he shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and shall Commission all the Officers of the United States.

1. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

Langford v. United States, 101 U.S., 341.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.

The judicial Power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The Judges, both of the supreme and inferior Courts, shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, and shall, at stated Times, receive for their Services a Compensation which shall not be diminished during their Continuance in Office.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

GEORGIA

[The following amendments were proposed at the first remain of the first congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of states. Laws of the U. S., vol. 1, page 82.]

The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge (8 Wendell Rep. 100) to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

in Matter of Spies, 123 U. S., 181, the court says: "That the first ten articles of amendment were not intended to limit the powers of the state government in respect to their own people, but to operate as the national government alone was decided more than a half catury ago, and that decision has been steadily adhered to since." See also Eilenbecker v. District, etc., 134 U. S., 31; Kansas v. hadky, 26 Fed. Rep'r, 289.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the constitution, expressed s desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislatures of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely:

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

SECTION 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion. or other crime, the basis of representaion therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the Digitized by GOOGLE number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U. S., 1.

SECTION 3.

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SECTION 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5.

The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

[The following amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the everal States by the Sixty-first Congress on the 12th day of July, 1909, and was declared to have been ratified in a proclamation by the Secretary of State, dated February 25, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVI.

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

[The following amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several States by the Sixty-second Congress on the 16th day of Mny, 1912, and was declared to have been ratified in a proclamation by the Secretary of State, dated May 31, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVII.

The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures.

2. When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, That the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointment until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

3. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

ARTICLE XVIII.

1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

ARTICLE XIX.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The Constitution.

WE, THE PEOPLE of the State of New York, grateful to Almighty God for our Freedom, in order to secure ita blessings, DO ESTABLISH THIS CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. The origin of the State government was the 20th April, 1777. Jackson v. White, 2) Johns. 313.

The rule against statutory interference with vested rights, does not apply to a Constitution. Matter of Bank, 21 N. Y. 9.

The Constitution should be so construed as best to promote the objects for which it was made, avoiding the two extremes of a liberal or a strict construction. North River Steamboat Co. v. Livingston. 3 Cow. 713.

The courts, in construing the Constitution, have nothing to do with the argument ab incorrenienti. People v. Morrell, 21 Wend. 563; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 103. Statutes are presumed conttitutional. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52

Barb. 533.

An act must be constitutional in substance as well as form. People v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 404.

The constitutionality of statutes ought not to be passed upon unless necessary. Prees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176; People ex rel. Wetmore v. Suprs. of New York, 2 Keyes, 288.

Nor should a statute be pronounced unconstitutional except in a case where there is no rational doubt. Ex parte McCollum, 1 Cow.

450; Clarke v. City of Rochester, 21 Barb. 416.

A conflict between the Constitution and a statute should not be implied. Cochran v. Van Surlay, 2) Wend, 335; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 103; People v. Fisher, 24 Wend, 215.

There must be a clear conflict. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533;

People v. Bennett, 54 id. 480.

A statute is not unconstitutional unless in direct and necessary con-Set with the Constitution. Grant v. Courter, 24 Barb, 232; Morris v. People, 3 Den. 381.

Nor unless it cannot be supported by any reasonable intendment or allowable presumption. People v. Supra, of Orange, 17 N. Y. 235.

Nor because it merely conflicts with the spirit of the Constitution.

People v. N. Y. Cent. R. R. Co., 24 N. Y. 485.

A law unconstitutional in part may be enforced as to its constitutimeal provisions. Matter of De Vancene, 31 How. Pr. 289, 343.

Material and actual injury must be shown to warrant the court in rouxing a statute unconstitutional. People v. Canal Board, 55 N. Y. 390.

A statute cannot be held unconstitutional when it may be constitutionally executed. People v. Rochester, 50 N. Y. 525.

A statute evading the terms, and frustrating the general and clearly expressed, or necessarily implied, purposes of the Constitution, is as dearly void, as if expressly forbidden. People v. Albertson, 55 N. Y. 50.

A constitutional prohibition should not be extended by construction from motives of convenience or policy. Settle v. Van Evrea, 49

N. Y. 250.

The long-continued and undisputed practical construction of a consuitat. soal provision by the Legislature has almost the force of judicial expectation in its interpretation. People ex rel. Williams v. Dayton. 55 N. Y. 367.

An act susceptible of valid or invalid construction, courts favor construction in favor of validity. Sun, etc., Co. v. Mayor, 8 App.

Div. 23).

Journal of constitutional convention may be consulted on question of constitutional construction. Goedel v. Palmer, 15 App. Div. 86.

Where act may be corruptly administered, no reason for holding it unconstitutional. People ex rel. Nechamous v. Warden, 144 N. Y. 529. The village water act, chap. 181, laws of 1875, was a valid exercise of legislative power. Skaneateles W. W. Co. v. Vill. of Skaneateles, 161 N. Y. 151.

Statutes relative to mileage books, when limited to railroad corporations wholly within the State, are a valid exercise of the power of the state and are not regulations of interstate commerce. Purdy v.

Erie R. R. Co., 162 N. Y. 42.

The true of the State to the seacoast and the shore of tidal rivers is an m-ideat and part of its sovereignty, which cannot be surrendered, almost or delegated, except for some public purpose or some reasonstile u - which can fairly be said to be for the public benefit. Coxe v. State, 141 N. Y. 396.

The home rule provision embodied in § 2, art. 10 of the Constitution. protects all emential or exclusive functions theretofore belonging to local officers and prohibits their transfer, whether direct or indirect, to State officers. People ex rel. Met. St. Ry. Co. v. Tax Comrs.,

174 N. Y. 417, rev'g 79 App. Div. 184, 643.

The constitutionality of an act inflicting a penalty will not be considered by the Court of Appeals when the question was not raised at the trial. Dodge v. Cornelius, 168 N. Y. 242, rev'g 40 App. Div. 18. See also 178 N. Y. 416.

A statute will not be declared unconstitutional if by any reasonable must law. People ex rel. Simpson v. Wells, 181 N. Y. 252.

ARTICLE I.

Persons not to be disfranchised.—Section 1. No member of this State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof. unless by the law of the land, or the judgment of his peers.

LAW OF THE LAND. - These words do not mean a statute passed by the Legislature for the purpose of working the wrong. The meaning is, that no member of the State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any right or privilege, unless the matter shall be adjudged against him upon trial had according to the course of the common law. It must be ascertained judicially that he has forfeited his privileges, or that some one else has a superior title to the property he possesses, before either of them can be taken from him. It cannot be done by mere Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill, 140; White v. White, 5 Barb.

471; Pe nile v. Toynbee, 2) id. 198.

Compensation for taking private property; private roads: tringe of agricultural lands; excess condemnation.— 17. When private property shall be taken for any public the compensation to be made therefor, when such compration is not made by the state, shall be ascertained by a my, or by the Supreme Court with or without a jury, but not with a referee, or by not less than three commissioners apminted by a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. Private roads may be opened in the manner to be prescribed by law; but in every case the necessity of the road and the amount of all damage to be sustained b the opening thereof shall be first determined by a jury of freeholders, and such smount, together with the expenses of the proceeding, shall be paid by the person to be benefited. The use of property for the drainage of swamp or agricultural lands is declared to be a public use, and general laws may be passed permitting the owners or occupants of swamp or agricultural lands to construct and maintain for the drainage thereof, necessary drains ditches and dykes upon the lands of others, under proper restrictions on making just compensation, and such compensation together with the cost of such drainage may be assessed, wholly or partly, against any property benefited thereby: but no special laws shall be enacted for such DUITDOSES.

The Legislature may authorize cities to take more land and property than is needed for actual construction in the laying out, widening, extending or relocating parks, public places, highways or streets; provided, however, that the additional land and property so authorized to be taken shall be no more than sufficient to form suitable building sites abutting on such park, public place, highway or street. After so much of the land and property has been appropriated for such park, public place, highway or street as is needed therefor, the remainder may be sold or leased.

Enumerations and reapportionments. - § 4. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, during the months of May and June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and in the same months every tenth year thereafter: and the said districts shall be so altered by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration, that each senate district shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. and be in as compact form as practicable, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times, consist of contiguous territory, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district except to make two or more senate districts wholly in such county. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of senate districts: nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same county, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such district. Counties, towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

No county shall have four or more senators unless it shall have a full ratio for each senator. No county shall have more than one-third of all the senators; and no two counties or the territory thereof as now organized, which are adjoining counties, or which are separated only by public waters, shall have more than one-half of all the senators.

The ratio for apportioning senators shall always be obtained by dividing the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, by fifty, and the senate shall always be composed of fifty members, except that if any county having three or more senators at the time of any apportionment shall be entitled on such ratio to an additional senator or senators, such additional senator or senators shall be given to such county in addition to the fifty senators, and the whole number of senators shall be increased to that extent.

An extraordinary session called by the governor after the return of an enumeration is the first session, and the Legislature so in session has power to make the changes and apportionment, upon the recommendation of the governor. People ex rel. Carter v. Rice, 135 N. Y. 473.

Apportionment act. chap. 431, laws of 1906, invalid. Matter of Shemil v. O'Brien, 188 N. Y. 185, rev'g 114 App. Div. 890.

Apportionment of assemblymen; creation of assembly districts.—§ 5. The members of the Assembly shall be chosen by single districts and shall be apportioned by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration among the several counties of the State, as nearly as may be according to the number of their respective inhabitants, excluding aliens. Every county heretofore established and separately organized, except the county of Hamilton, shall always be entitled to one member of Assembly, and no county shall hereafter be erected unless its population shall entitle it to a member. The county of Hamilton shall elect with the county of Fulton, until the population of the county of Hamilton shall, according to the ratio, entitle it to a member. But the Legislature may abolish the said county of Hamilton and annex the territory thereof to some other county or counties.

The quotient obtained by dividing the whole number of inhabitants of the State, excluding aliens, by the number of members of Assembly, shall be the ratio for apportionment, which shall be made as follows: One member of Assembly shall be apportioned to every county, including Fulton and Hamilton as one county, containing less than the ratio and one-half over. Two members shall be apportioned to every other county. The remaining members of Assembly shall be apportioned to the counties having more than two ratios according to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. Members apportioned on remainders shall be apportioned to the counties having the highest remainders in the order thereof respectively. No county shall have more members of Assembly than a county having a greater number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

Until after the next enumeration, members of the Assembly shall be apportioned to the several counties as follows: Albany county, four members; Allegany county, one member; Broome county, two members; Cattaraugus county, two members; Cayuga county, two members; Chautauqua county, two members; Chemung county, one member; Chenango county, one member; Clinton county, one member; Columbia county, one member; Cortland county, one member; Delaware county, one member; Dutchess county, two members; Erie county, eight members; Essex county, one member; Franklin county, member: Fulton and Hamilton counties, one member. Genesee county, one member; Greene county, one member; Herkimer county, one member: Jefferson county, two members; Kings county, twenty-one members: Lewis county, one member; Livingston county, one member; Madison county, me member; Monroe county, four members; Montgomery county, one member: New York county, thirty-five members; Nisgara county, two members; Oneida county, three members: Onondaga county, four members; Ontario county, one member; Orange county, two members; Orleans county, one member: Oswego county, two members: Otsego county, one member: Putnam county, one member: Queens county. three members; Rensselaer county, three members; Richmond county, one member: Rockland county, one member: St. Lawrence county, two members; Saratoga county, one member: Schenectady county, one member: Schoharie county. one member: Schuyler county, one member: Seneca county, one member: Steuben county, two members: Suffolk county, two members: Sullivan county, one member: Tioga county, one member: Tompkins county, one member: Ulster county. two members: Warren county, one member: Washington county, one member: Wayne county, one member: Westchester county, three members: Wyoming county, one member, and Yates county, one member.

In any county entitled to more than one member, the board of supervisors, and in any city embracing an entire county and having no board of supervisors, the common council, or if there be none, the body exercising the powers of a common council, shall assemble on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and at such times as the Legislature making an apportionment shall prescribe, and divide such counties into assembly districts marry equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliena,

as may be, of convenient and contiguous territory in as compact form as practicable, each of which shall be wholly within a senate district formed under the same apportionment, equal to the number of members of Assembly to which such county shall be entitled, and shall cause to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and of the clerk of such county. a description of such districts, specifying the number of each district and of the inhabitants thereof, excluding aliens, according to the last preceding enumeration; and such apportionment and districts shall remain unaltered until another enumeration shall be made, as herein provided; but said division of the city of Brooklyn and the county of Kings to be made on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, shall be made by the common council of the said city and the board of supervisors of said county, assembled in joint session. In counties having more than one senate district, the same number of assembly districts shall be put in each senate district, unless the assembly districts cannot be evenly divided among the senate districts of any county, in which case one more assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the largest, or one less assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the smallest number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as the case may require. town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of assembly districts, nor shall any districts contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same senate district. than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such assembly district. Towns or blocks which, from their location may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens; but in the division of cities under the first apportionment, regard shall be had to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, of the election districts according to the state enumeration of one thousand eight hundred and ninetv-two, so far as may be, instead of blocks. Nothing in this section shall prevent the division. at any time, of counties and towns, and the eraction of new towns by the Legislature.

An apportionment by the Legislature, or other body, shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court, at the suit of any citizen, under such reasonable regulations as the Legislature may prescribe; and any court before which a cause may be pending involving an apportionment, shall give precedence thereto over all other causes and proceedings, and if said court be not in session it shall convene promptly for the disposition of the same.

Act annexing part of Westchester county to New York, valid. People ex rel. Henderson v. Supra., etc., 147 N. Y. 1.

The Legislature cannot, by altering bounds of cities and towns, after an Assembly district except at the decennial apportionment. Kinne v. Syracuse, 3 Keyes, 110.

Amne v. Syracuse, 3 keyes, 110.

The provision for reorganising Senate and Assembly districts at the next session of the Legislature after the decennial census is directory merely; an act for that purpose, passed at a subsequent session, is valid. Rumsey v. People, 19 N. Y. 41.

This provision binds the Legislature as well as boards of supervisors. Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447.

In determining the question of population the Legislatures are not confined to the last census, nor restrained in regard to the nature of the confined to the last census, nor restrained in regard to the nature of the evidence as their basis of the action. DeCamp v. Eveland, 19 Barb. 81.

A new county may be erected for municipal and judicial purposes only, until the next apportionment, with right of suffrage to the electors meanwhile. Id.

It is the duty of boards of supervisors of counties to make the Amembly districts as nearly as may be, equal in the number of inhabitanta, having regard to the requirements that each district must be composed of convenient and contiguous territory, and that no town shall be divided. The proper discharge of the duty of division implies considerable discretion which, in its exercise, must be honest and fair. Baird et al. v. Supervisors, 138 N. Y. 95.

The intention is to permit the exercise of a reasonable and honest discretion on the part of the supervisors in carrying out the provision which requires towns which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts to be so placed as to make such districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants. In re Smith v. Suprs. St. Lawrence Co., 148 N. Y. 187, rev'g 90 Hun, 568.

Compensation of members.—§ 6. Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars. The members of either house shall also receive the sum of one dollar for every ten miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting, once in each session on the most usual route. Senators, when the Senate alone is convened in extraordinary session, or when serving as members of the Court for the Trial of Impeachments, and such members of the Assembly, not exceeding nine in number, as shall be appointed managers of an impeachment, shall receive an additional allowance of ten dollars a day.

Civil appointments of members void.—§ 7. No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, or from the Legislature, or from any city government, during the time for which he shall have been elected; and all such appointments and all votes given for any such member for any such office or appointment shall be void.

A member of Assembly may be appointed clerk of District Court, Stewart v. Mayor, 15 App. Div. 548.

Persons disqualified from being members. — § 8. No person shall be eligible to the Legislature, who at the time of his election, is, or within one hundred days previous thereto has been, a member of Congress, a civil or military officer under the United States, or an officer under any city government. And if any person shall, after his election as a member of the Legislature, be elected to Congress, or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or under any city government, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat.

Time of elections.—§ 9. The elections of senators and members of assembly, pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, unless otherwise directed by the Legislature.

Powers of each house.— § 10. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. Each house shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members; shall choose its own officers; and the Senate shall choose a temporary president to preside in case of the absence or impeachment of the Lieutenant-Governor, or when he shall refuse to act as president, or shall act as Governor.

Journals; open sessions; adjournments.— § 11. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, except such parts as may require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days.

Members not to be questioned for speeches.—§ 12. For any speech or debate in either house of the Legislature, the members shall not be questioned in any other place.

Bill may originate in either house.——§ 13. Any bill may originate in either house of the Legislature, and all bills passed by one house may be amended by the other.

Enacting clause of bills.—§ 14. The enacting clause of all bills shall be "The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows," and no law shall be enacted except by bill.

Manner of passing bills.— § 15. No bill shall be passed or become a law unless it shall have been printed and upon the desks of the members, in its final form, at least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless the Governor, or the acting Governor, shall have certified to the necessity of its immediate passage, under his hand and the seal of the State; nor shall any bill be passed or become a law. except by the assent of the majority of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature; and upon the last reading of a bill, no amendment thereof shall be allowed, and the question upon its final passage shall be taken immediately thereafter, and the yeas and nays entered on the journal.

The requirement that the yeas and nays shall be taken upon the final passage of a bill and entered on the journal is complied with in either house when a bill has been passed in that manner, and subsequently amendments have been passed in the same manner, which upon being disagreed to by the other house, are receded from by a vote without calling the yeas and nays. When Lieutenant-Governor to act as Governor.— § 6. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor shall, with the consent of the Legislature, be out of the State, in time of war, at the head of a military force thereof, he shall continue Commander-in-Chief of all the military force of the State.

Qualifications and duties of Lieutenant-Governor; succession to the governorship.— § 7. The Lieutenant-Governor shall possess the same qualifications of eligibility for office as the Governor. He shall be President of the Senate, but shall have only a casting vote therein. If during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease; and if the President of the Senate for any of the above causes shall become incapable of performing the duties pertaining to the office of Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease.

Salary of Lieutenant-Governor.— § 8. The Lieutenant-Governor shall receive for his services an annual salary of five thousand dollars, and shall not receive or be entitled to any other compensation, fee or perquisite, for any duty or service he may be required to perform by the Constitution or by law.

Bills to be presented to Governor; approval; passage of bill by Legislature if not approved.— § 9. Every bill which shall have passed the Senate and Assembly shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor; if he approve, be shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections to the house in which it shall have originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. In all such cases the votes in both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manmer as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become a law without the approval of the Governor. No bil shall become a law after the final adjournment of the Legislature, unless approved by the Governor within thirty days after such adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contain reveral items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of such items while approving of the other portion of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects; and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect. If the Legislature be in session, he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately reconsidered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. All the provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the Governor, shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill appropriating money.

All appointments under this section shall continue until and including the last day of December next Her the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeals.— § 9. After the last by of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals, except where the judgment is of death, shall be limited to the review of questions of law. No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as of tight, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to orders made or judgments rendered by any General Term before the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, but appeals therefrom may be taken under existing provisions of law.

shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law.

Except the debts specified in sections two and three of this article, all debts contracted by the state after January first, nineteen hundred and twenty, pursuant to an authorization therefor, heretofore or hereafter made and each portion of any such debt from time to time so contracted irrespective of the terms of such authorization, shall be paid in equal annual instalments, the first of which shall be payable not more than one year, and the last of which shall be payable not more than fifty years, after such debt or portion thereof shall have been contracted. No such debt hereafter authorized shall be contracted for a period longer than that of the probable life of the work or object for which the debt is to be contracted, to be determined by general laws, which determination shall be conclusive.

The legislature may from time to time alter the rate of interest to be paid upon any state debt which has been or may be authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section or upon any part of such debt, provided, however, that the rate of interest shall not be altered upon any part of such debt or upon any bond or other evidence thereof which has been or shall be created or issued before such alteration.

If the income of any such fund in any year is more than a sum which, if annually added to such fund would, with the fund and its accumulations as aforesaid, retire the debt at maturity, the excess income may be applied to the interest on the debt for which the fund was created.

After any sinking fund shall equal an amount the debt for which it was created no further contribution shall be made thereto except to make good any losses ascertained at the annual appraisals above mentioned, and the income thereof shall be applied to the payment of the interest on such debt. Any excess in such income not required for the payment of interest may be applied to the general fund of the state.

The legislature may also by general laws provide means and authority whereby outstanding bonds of the state, for which sinking funds are provided, may be exchanged at par for cancellation, for serial bonds of the form authorized under section four of this article, upon such terms and conditions as to interest and otherwise as it may in its discretion authorize or determine, except that the debt as thus refunded shall finally mature no later and at no greater comparative cost to the state than the original debt; the determination of the legislature as to such comparative cost shall be conclusive, No further contributions to the respective sinking funds shall be made on account of bonds so exchanged and the proportion of any such sinking fund which the amount of the bonds so exchanged shall bear to the amount of bonds outstanding of the same issue may be appropriated, as required, for the payment of the substituted serial bonds.

STATE HOSPITAL COMMISSION.

Capitol, Albany.

By the adoption in 1894 of the new Constitution, which took effect E January 1, 1895, the State Commission in Lunary became a constational body, vested with exclusive jurisdiction over all institufor the care and treatment of the insane, not including epileprand idiots. The Legislature is empowered to confer additional men and duties upon the Commission, but all laws existing at the the adoption of the Constitution, so far as they do not conflict is provisions, are preserved. By the provisions of chapter 121 Laws of 1912, the State Commission in Lunacy is designated * tate Hospital Commission. The Commission consists of three spointed by the Governor (by and with the consent of the rane for terms of aix years, with the exception of the medical Comreimer, who serves during good behavior. One Commissioner is to be a physician, a citizen of the State, a graduate of really chartered medical college, of at least ten years' experience actual practice of his profession, to have had five years' actual Prience in the care and treatment of the insane and experience management of institutions for the insane. He receives a salary 15.50. The second Commissioner is required to be a lawyer of at 'en years' standing, a citizen of the State, and he receives a salary 15,000. The third Commissioner shall be a layman, and he receives slav of $5,000. Each Commissioner receives $1,200 per annum in rid his traveling and other incidental expenses. No private instifor the insane can lawfully exist without a license from the Transion. By chapter 32 of the Laws of 1909, the Commission is given Trision over the expenditures of all State hospitals for the insane; E isbursements for any purpose can be made by these institutions upon quarterly estimates, which must be submitted to the mission for revision and approval. All vouchers for the mainand building improvements account of the State hospitals re pail through the office of the Commission. The Commission maintains a Bureau of Deportation for the purpose of returning to other countries and states alien and non-resident insane perso who have not obtained a legal residence in New York State. T Commission appoints agents, whose duty it is to secure from friends and relatives of patients who are legally liable for the co of their support and are able to reimburse the State therefor, whole or in part, the cost of such support. The State hospits are required to report to the Commission annually, and the Commission a mission is required to report to the Legislature. The Commission from time to time, with the approval of the Governor, Secretary State and Comptroller, fixes the annual salaries of the resident office of the State hospitals which are uniform for like services. The Conmission is authorized by chapter 32, Laws of 1909, to appoint a medic inspector who visits and inspects all institutions for the insane. T seal of the office is the Army of the State, surrounded by the inscription "State of New York - State Hospital Commission."

STATE HOSPITALS FOR THE INSANE.

[Chapter 32, Laws of 1909.]

The State hospitals are governed by boards of managers, appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, which have the general direction and control of the property. These boards establish bylaw, rules and regulations relative to the appointment and duties d Arers and employees of the hospitals and for the internal govern-Test of the same; maintain an effective inspection, for which purpose 1 months of the board must visit the hospitals at least every month. Tx Commission appoints for each hospital, with the approval of the bard of managers, a superintendent who shall be a well-educated Kingian, a graduate of an incorporated medical college, and who have had not less than five years' actual experience in an institu-44 for the care of the insane. The superintendent of each hospital h is thief executive officer, and, subject to the regulations of the beard of managers, has the general superintendence of the buildings, to and property and the direction and control of all persons trees. The superintendents of all the hospitals meet whenever the upon, at the office of the State Hospital Commission, to consult the Commission upon matters relating to the care and maintelance of the State hospitals. The superintendents appoint the stewards of the State hospit.ils.

Colonel J. Weston Myers (Property and Disbursing Officer), Quartermaster Corps, Assistant Adjutant General, officer in charge.

Bureau of War Records of The Adjutant General's office, Room 262 Capitol, Albany.

William A. Saxton, Chief Clerk.

Through The Adjutant General of the State is the regular channel of communication with the Commander-in-Chief, and all orders, special instructions and general regulations issued by the Commander-in-Chief are prepared and published by The Adjutant General of the State. It is the duty of The Adjutant General of the State to keep in his office the register of all the officers of the land and naval forces of the State, to prepare and issue the necessary books and blanks required to carry out the provisions of the Military Law, to attend to the purchasing, safe-keeping, repairing and issuing of the military and naval property of the State, and to keep account of all expenses necessarily incurred, including pay of officers and enlisted men, subsistence of militia, transportation of the militia, and of all military and naval property of the State, or of the United States.

By an act passed April 16, 1827, The Adjutant General was directed to prepare a seal to be used on military commissions, certificates or other official documents, and all copies of records or papers in his office, duly certified under the said seal, are made evidence in all cases, the same as if the originals are produced.

NEW YORK STATE TROOPERS Department of State Police.

The New York State Troopers were organized in May, 1917, Major Chandler receiving his commission on May 2. The organization, equipment and training of the men occupied four months. The troopers first appeared at the State Fair in an official capacity, policing the grounds. The department consists of six troops of fifty-eight men each, and a headquarters force of nine, making a total of 357 men, with 340 horses at their disposal. Barracks are located in the vicinity of Batavia, Oneida, Troy, White Plains, Malone and Sidney, with many sub-stations scattered over the State. The department co-operates with the Health, Conscruation, Education and the Tax Commissions, as well as sheriffs, district attorneys and societies for the prevention of cruelty to children and animals, automobile clubs and similar organizations.

During the year 1920 the State Troopers made the following record:

STATE PROBATION COMMISSION.

58 North Pearl street, Albany.

[Chapter 56, Laws of 1909.]

The State Probation Commission consists of seven members, of whom four are appointed by the Governor for terms of four years each; one is appointed by the State Board of Charities from among its members; one is appointed by the State Commission of Prisons from among its members; and the Commissioner of Education is a member ex officio. The first appointments by the Governor, however, were for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively. Commissioners serve without compensation, but are entitled to necessary and reasonable traveling expenses.

The general duties of the Commission are to collect and publish statistical and other information, and make recommendations as to the operations of the probation system; to keep informed as to the work of all probation officers, and from time to time to inquire into their conduct and efficiency; and to endeavor, by such other means as are most suitable, to secure the effective application of the probation system and the enforcement of the probation law in all parts of the State. It may require reports from probation officers on blanks furnished by the Commission. It shall inform all magistrates and probation officers each year of any legislation directly affecting probation and shall publish annually a list of all probation officers in the State. It shall make an annual report to the Legislature showing its proceedings under this act and the results of the probation system as administered in the various localities in the State, and making any suggestions or recommendations which may be considered wise for the more effectual accomplishment of the general purposes of the Commission. The Commission, in the discharge of its duties, shall have access to all offices and records of probation officers, and may direct formal investigations of the work of any probation officer.

The Commission shall employ a secretary at a salary of not iess than $3,500, a stenographer and such other employees as may be necessary.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION.

91 State street, Albany, N. Y.

Chapter 134, Laws of 1921, reorganized the Public Service Commission, First District, and the Public Service Commission, Second District, formed by chapter 429, Laws of 1907, and chapter 667, Laws of 1915, and chapter 263, Laws of 1919.

Five Commissioners are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Commissioner designated by the Governor acting as Chairman of the Commission. The annual salary of each Commissioner is $15,000.

The Commission has power to regulate the conduct and management of common carriers, including railroad and street railroad corpotions; car, sleeping car, freight and freight line companies; and express, baggage and transfer companies if operating wholly or in part upon or in connection with a railroad or street railroad. mission also has jurisdiction over light, heat and power corporations: and steam, stock yard and freight terminal corporations. The term "common carrier" also includes any person or corporation owning or operating a stage route in a city of one million or more inhabitants: also any person or corporation owning or operating a bus line, stage route or motor vehicle line or route, carrying passengers at fifteen cents or less per passenger within the limits of certain municipalities or in competition with another common carrier. Such persons or corporations must obtain the consent of the local authorities where required and a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission. The Commission has power to hear and investigate complaints; to regulate rates in proper cases; to fix the standards of illuminating power and purity of gas; to prescribe the efficiency of the electric supply system, current supplied, and lamps furnished; to compel the attendance of witnesses; to prescribe uniform methods of keeping accounts; to examine persons, corporations and municipalities under its supervision; to require annual and other reports; to examine gas and electric meters; to supervise the maintenance and operation of the railroads in the State: to investigate all accidents which result in loss of life or injury to persons or property; and to take summary proceedings to discontinue violations of law or the orders of the Com mission. The Commissioners may appoint a counsel, a secretary, and such experts, inspectors, clerks and other employees as may be necessary. The secretary and the counsel for the Commission hold office at the pleasure of the Commissioners.

The Public Service Commission now constituted has in addition to the powers heretofore delegated to the two Public Service Commissions the authority to increase or reduce rates for street railroads and for gas and electrical corporations, notwithstanding that the higher or lower rate has been heretofore fixed by contract, by franchise condition or by statute.

The former Public Service Commissions for the first and second districts respectively have been merged into a single commission which has jurisdiction throughout the State. The traction matters in the city of New York, subway, surface and elevated, have been placed under the jurisdiction of a separate commission called the Transit Commission.

The scal of the Commission is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription "State of New York-The Public Service Commission."

TRANSIT COMMISSION.

[Chaps. 134, Laws of 1921; 335, Laws of 1921; constituting chapter 48 of the Consolidated Laws.]

By chapter 134 of the Laws of 1921, the office of Transit Construction Commissioner, created by chapter 520, Laws of 1919, was abolished and a Transit Commission of three members created, appointed by the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, their respective terms to be five years from the date of appointment. The salary of each Commissioner is $15,000 per year. The Governor may remove a Commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity of being publicly heard in person or by counsel in his own defense upon not less than ten days' notice.

The powers and duties of the Board of Rapid Transit Railroad Commissioners as established by chapter 4 of the Laws of 1891 and acts amendatory thereof, which were vested in the Public Service Commission for the First District from July 1, 1907, to June 1, 1919, and in the office of the Transit Construction Commissioner from June 1, 1919, to April 25, 1921, relating to the planning and construction of rapid transit railroads within the city of New York, are now vested in the Transit Commission, together with additional powers and duties as set forth in chapter 134 and chapter 335, Laws of 1921. Such additional powers and duties include those of a regulatory character relating to steam railroads, street railroads, stage or omnibus lines within the city of New York, or the portions of such lines within the city of New York, which duties were delegated to the Public Service Commission for the First District by chapter 480 of the Laws of 1910 and acts amendatory thereof.

In addition to the above, certain new powers and duties not heretofore possessed by any commission, board or other public body of the State of New York were delegated by the Legislature to the Transit Commission. Chapters 134 and 335 make provision for the relief of a transit emergency in New York city, the existence of which is certified to by these laws. Broad powers in preparing and putting into effect a plan of readjustment for the relief of the said transportation emergency and for the general improvement of transit conditions are delegated to the Transit Commission.

The new laws prescribe that the plan of readjustment shall contain provisions which, in the judgment of the Commission, will accomplish as nearly as may be the following main purposes:

- 1. The combination, rehabilitation, improvement and extension of existing railroads so that service thereon may be increased and improved to the fullest extent possible.
- 2. The receipt as soon as practicable by the city of sufficient returns from the operation of the railroads so that the corporate stock or bonds issued by the city for the construction of rapid transit railroads may be exempted in computing the debt incurring power of the city under the Constitution of the State, and
- 3. The assuring to the people of the city the continued operation of the railroads at the present or lowest possible fares consistent with the just valuations of the railroads and their safe and economical operation.

Specific and extensive provisions are made for valuation of the railroad properties in New York and the Commission is permitted, if such plan seems feasible, to prepare for the vesting in the city of New York of title to railroads now privately owned.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Capitol, Albany.

[Art. 5, Sec. 3, of the Constitution, and chapter 13, Laws of 1909.] The Superintendent of Public Works is appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and holds his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he is nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He receives an annual compensation of $10,000. He is required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He is charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals, and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction cr improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor: subject to the control of the Legislature, he makes the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. The Superintendent is also charged with the progress of public improvements authorized by special acts of the Legislature, and the expenditure of funds provided therefor. He administers the provisions of the Navigation Law governing the operation of vessels on the inland waters of the State. The terminals constructed to facilitate commerce on the State canals are under his management, administration and control. He is charged with the operation and maintenance of the bridges over the Hudson river between Albany and Rensselaer, Troy and Watervliet and Troy and Cohoes, as well as certain other structures outside the canal system. He reports annually to the Legislature as to the trade and tonnage carried over the canal system, as to their condition and the repair and construction work progressed thereon. He also reports on other matters as requested by the Legislature, or by either branch thereof from time to time. He is a member of the Canal Board, and also has membership in various special and temporary commissions created by the Legislature. The Superintendent of Public Works may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require, but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal, and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. He appoints a deputy and not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties are prescribed by him. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, are appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works. and are subject to suspension or removal by him. The Governor. by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has power to fill a vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant a commission which shall expire twenty days after the beginning of the next succeeding session of the Senate

The Governor of this State (with the consent of the Senate) appoints ten Commissioners, five of whom shall be citisens and residents of the State of New York, who are constituted a board of commissioners by the name of "Commissioners of the Palisades Interstate Park." The term of office is five years.

The Commissioners receive no compensation for their services, but they are entitled to their actual disbursements incurred in the performance of their duties. They annually choose from their own members a president, vice-president, treasurer and secretary, and appoint such other officers and employees, including patrolmen, as may seem necessary, and may employ counsel. The Board of Commissioners shall have power to select and locate such lands in Orange and Rockland counties lying between the top of the steep edge of the Palisades and the exterior of the bulkhead line established by law upon the Hudson river, together with such separate parcels of unimproved lands, lying on the front of the top of the Palisades from the New Jersey State line on the south to Piermont creek, near Piermont in Rockland county, on the north, together with other lands west thereof and extending into the Ramapo mountains, except United States government land at West Point, and the State reservation at Stony Point, as may in their opinion be proper and necessary to be reserved for the purpose of establishing a State park and thereby preserving the scenic beauty of the Palisades, and to acquire, maintain and make available for use as a public park the lands so located.

STATE TAX DEPARTMENT.

Capitol, Albany.

[Chaps. 62, Laws of 1909; 90, Laws of 1921.]

The State Tax Department is headed by the State Tax Commission, consisting of three members appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Scnate, one of whom shall be designated by the Governor as President of the Commission. Upon the appointment of a successor to the President of the Commission, the Governor shall designate such successor, or other member of the Commission, as President. Of the Commissioners first appointed, one shall hold office until January 1, 1923, one until January 1, 1925, and one until January 1, 1927. Their successors shall be appointed for full terms of six years from the expiration of the terms of their predecessors in office. If a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, it shall be appointed as a member of the Commission, unless at the time of his appointment he be a resident of the State, and known to possess knowledge of the subjects of taxation and skill in matters pertaining thereto. The President of the Commission receives a salary of $12,000 and the other members $10,000. The President is the administrative head of the Commission and all appointments and removals are made by him.

The department comprises the following divisions and bureaus:

ADMINISTRATION BUREAU — Administrative work of department.

FINANCE BUREAU-Receives all taxes from bureaus collecting taxes.

LOCAL ASSESSMENTS, EQUALIZATION AND STATISTICS BUREAU—Investigation and supervision of local assessments for taxation and gathering of statistics for the State Board of Equalization and the equalization of special franchises. Also hears equalization appeals.

SPECIAL FRANCHISE BUREAU — Valuation of special franchises.

MORTGAGE TAX BUREAU — Supervision, investigation and apportionment of mortgage taxes.

Law Division — General counsel and preparation of certiorari

CORPORATION TAX BUREAU—Assessment and collection of taxes on corporate franchises and franchise tax on manufacturing and mercantile corporations; also administers Stock Transfer Law.

PERSONAL INCOME TAX BUREAU — Assesses and collects personal income taxes.

TRANSFER TAX BUREAU - Assesses and collects inheritance taxes.

MOTOR VEHICLE BUREAU — The registration of all motor vehicles and the licensing of all chauffeurs and operators is directed by the State Tax Commission on and after July 1, 1921, the Commission assuming all such duties heretofore handled by the Secretary of State, the power of suspension and revocation of operators' and chauffeurs' licenses being in the hands of county judges other than New York city, and magistrates of first, second and third class cities, the power of restoration resting with the Tax Commission.

The Tax Commissioners personally supervise the work of the bureaus and divisions; officially visit each county once in two years to advise with assessors and supervisors and generally enforce compliance with the Tax Law, reporting annually to the Legislature.

STATE ATHLETIC COMMISSION.

(Chaps. 912, Laws of 1920; 714, Laws of 1921.)

Under chapter 714, Laws of 1921, the State Boxing Commission is continued under the name of the State Athletic Commission. The law specifies that the Governor shall appoint three persons to serve as members of the State Athletic Commission, serving without compensation, but receiving their actual and necessary traveling expenses. The Commission maintains an office in New York city. The Commission is given the power of appointing and removing, not to exceed four deputice, each of whom receives a salary of $4,000 a year, together with the necessary traveling expenses. The law specifies that a deputy must be present at all sparring, boxing or wrestling matches held pursuant to the provisions of the law. Such deputy is to ascertain the exact conditions governing each contest and make a written report on the same. The Commission is vested with the sole direction, management, control and jurisdiction of all boxing, sparring and wrestling matches in the State, and issues permits for the holding of the same.

Under the provisions of the law, the Governor is given power of appointing a License Committee, consisting of three persons, serving without compensation, maintaining a general office in New York city. This License Committee has the sole control, authority and jurisdiction over all licenses for holding boxing, sparring and wrestling matches and all persons who participate in such. The law further specifies conditions under which all matches shall be held, the amount of license fees, the weights and classes, physical examination, etc.

COMMISSION FOR THE REGULATION OF MOTION PICTURES.

[Chapter 715, Laws of 1921.]

The Commission consists of three persons named by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Scnate, one being designated to serve as chairman, and another as secretary. The law specifies that the Commissioners must be citizens of the United States, possessing qualifications through education and experience for the duties of the office. Power of removal for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office is vested in the Governor. The term of office is five years, except in the original appointments, one term expiring December 31, 1922, another on December 31, 1924, and the third on December 31, 1925. Members of the Commission receive an annual salary of $7,500, with the necessary traveling expenses. The Commission has the authority to appoint or remove deputies, inspectors and such other employees as may be required, illrowise fixing their compensation. The Commission maintains headquarters in Albany, but is permitted to establish branch offices where necessary. On and after August 1, 1921, no motion picture film can be shown in New York State which has not been passed upon and licensed by the Commission. Permit may be given, however, by the Commission, for current event films without inspection, also scientific and educational film, or film intended solely for the instruction or welfare of employees, but in each case a sworn description of the fi.m must be filed with the Commission. The Commission also has complete jurisdiction over all advertising matter connected with motion picture films. The law specifies the amount which must be charged for the examination of film and also specifies conditions under which a license may be revoked.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals succeeded the Court for the Trial of Impeachments and the Correction of Errors, so far as the correction of errors is concerned. As first organised, under the Constitution of 1846, it was composed of eight Judges, four of whom were chosen by the electors of the State for a term of eight years, and four were selected from the class of Justices of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve. The Judges elected by the people were so classified that an election occurred every odd year. The Judges selected from the Supreme Court were taken each even year from the First, Third, Fifth and Seventh districts, and each odd year from the Second, Fcurth, Sixth and Eighth districts, and served one year. The Judge elected by the State at large having the shortest time to serve acted as Chief Judge. The clerk was elected by the people for the term of three years. The reporter was appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and Attorney-General for three years.

The article in relation to the Judiciary, framed by the Convention on 1867-8, reorganized the Court of Appeals. This article was approved by the people at the general election held in 1869. In accordance with its provisions, the Court of Appeals is now composed of a Chief Judge and six Associate Judges, who "hold their office for the term of fourteen years, from and including the first day of January next after their election," which was the year 1871. The first Judges were elected at a special election held in 1870. At the first election of Judges each elector voted for the Chief Judge and four only of the Associate Judges. Vacancies are to be filled at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs. and until so filled, by the Governor and Senate, or by the Governor alone, if the Senate is not in session. The Constitution of 1894 continued the Court of Appeals as it thus existed, but limited its jurisdiction, except where the judgment is of death, to the review of questions of law.

Section 7 of article VI of the Constitution, as amended in 1899, provides that whenever and as often as a majority of the Judges of the Court of Appeals shall certify to the Governor that said court is unable, by reason of the accumulation of causes pending therein, to hear and dispose of the same with reasonable speed, the Governor shall designate not more than four Justices of the Supreme Court to serve as Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals. The Justices so designated shall be relieved from their duties as Justices of the Supreme Court and shall serve as Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals until the causes undisposed of in said court are reduced to 200, when they shall return to the Supreme Court. The Governor may designate Justices of the Supreme Court to fill vacancies. No Justice shall serve as Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals except while holding the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and no more than asyen Judges shall sit in any case.

No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as of right, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

Judges are prohibited, by the Constitution, from holding any other office or place of public trust; from exercising any power of appointment to public office, and from practicing as attorney or counselor, or asting as referee. They are removable by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch concur therein.

The court is almost continually in session, taking recess as it may from time to time order.

The court has full power to correct or reverse the decisions of the Supreme Court. Five judges constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of four is necessary to pronounce a judgment. If such concurrence be not had, the case must be reheard; but no more than two rehearings can be had, and if then four Judges do not concur, the judgment of the court below is affirmed. The Legislature may authorise the judgments, decrees and decisions of any inferior local court of record established in a city, having original civil jurisdiction, to be removed for review directly into the Court of Appeals.

The salary of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is $10,500, and of the Associate Judges $10,000, with an additional allowance of $3,700 each for expenses.

A Clerk is appointed by the court to hold office during its pleasure. He gives a bond to the people of the State in the penalty of $25,000, with two sufficient sureties, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond is filed with the Comptroller. He appoints a deputy, by writing under his hand and seal, who takes the oath of office, and acts as Clerk in case of a vacancy, or when the Clerk is absent, or incapable of performing the duties. The salary of the Clerk is $6,000. He keeps his office in the Capitol at Albany. In it are deposited the records of the former Court of Errors, Supreme Court and Court of Chancery.

The court appoints its Reporter. He has a salary of $5,000.

SUPREME COURT.

The Constitution of 1894 continued the Supreme Court as it then existed, with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as is or may be prescribed by law, and also vested in the Supreme Court the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by the Superior Court of the city of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, which courts were abolished from and after January 1, 1896, and the judges thereof and their successors in office became Justices of the Supreme Court.

The general jurisdiction in law and equity, which the Supreme Court possesses under the Constitution, includes all the jurisdiction which was possessed and exercised by the Supreme Court of the colony of New York at any time, and by the Court of Chancery in England on the fourth day of July, 1776, with the exceptions, additions and limitations created and imposed by the Constitution and laws of the State. This general jurisdiction in law and equity includes all actions civil and criminal.

The State is divided into nine judicial districts. There are thirty-two Justices in the first district; twenty in the second; seven in the third; mix each in the fourth and sixth districts; eight in the fifth; seven in the seventh: fourteen in the eighth and seven in the ninth — one hundred and seven in all. Justices are elected by the voters of their respective districts. Although elected in districts, the jurisdiction of each Justice extends to every part of the State. The term of office is fourteen years from the first day of January next after their election, but no Justice can hold his office longer than until the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. They can hold no other office or public trust. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of the term of office, the same shall be filled for a full term at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session, the Governor may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

The salary of each Justice is $10,000 per annum. Those assigned to the Appellate Divisions in the third and fourth departments shall each receive in addition the sum of $2,000, and the Presiding Justices thereof the sum of $2,500 per year. Those Justices elected in the first and second judicial departments shall continue to receive from their respective cities, counties or districts, as now provided by law, such additional compensation as will make their aggregate compensation what they are now receiving. Those Justices elected in any judicial department other than the first or second, and assigned to the Appellate Divisions of the first or second departments shall, while so assigned, receive from those departments respectively, as now provided by law, such additional sum as is paid to the Justices of those departments.

The State is also divided into four Judicial Departments.

There is an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in each Judicial Department, consisting of seven Justices in the first department. and of five Justices in each of the other departments. The Governor may also make temporary designations in case of the absence or inability to act of any Justice in the Appellate Division, or in case the Presiding Justice of any Appellate Division shall certify to him that one or more additional Justices are needed for the speedy disposition of the business before it. In each department four Justices constitute a quorum, and three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five Justices sit in any case. From all the Justices elected to the Supreme Court the Governor designates the Presiding Justice and the other Justices who shall constitute the Appellate Division in each department. The Presiding and a majority of the other Justices must reside in the department. The Presiding Justices serve during their respective terms of office: the other Justices for terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms, if less than five years. No Justice of the Appellate Division can exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court, other than those of a Justice out of court, and those pertaining to the Appellate Division, or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel, but any such Justice, when not actually engaged in performing the duties of such Appellate Justice in the department to which he is designated, may hold any term of the Supreme Court and exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court in any county or judicial district in any other department of the State. The Appellate Divisions are located, respectively, the first department in New York city; the second department in Brooklyn; the third department in Albany, and the fourth department in Rochester, but terms thereof may be held elsewhere in such departments, whenever in the discretion of the Justices thereof, respectively, public interests may require.

The Appellate Divisions have power to appoint and remove a reporter, and the Justices of the Appellate Division in each department have power to appoint and remove a clerk.

The county clerks of the several counties are clerks of the Supreme Court in their respective counties, and the seals of such county clerks are the seals of the court.

NEW YORK STATE CANALS.

OFFICERS FOR 1921.

COMMISSIONERS OF THE CANAL FUND

The Commissioners have the superintendence of the Canal Fund and of the Canal Debt. The Board is composed of the Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer and Attorney-General.

CHARLES L. CADLE

The Superintendent of Public Works has supervision over the canals of the State, and they are in his charge for maintenance and overation. The canals are as follows: The Eric Canal, Champlain al, Oswego Canal, Cayuga and Seneca Canal, the Cayuga Lake In et at Ithaca, the Back River Canal, the Glens Falls Feeder, and the lakes, reservoirs and feeders connected therewith. The Shinnecock and Peconic Canal, located in the county of Suffolk, and connecting the waters of Shinnecock and Peconic bays, also is officially a part of the canal system. He also has jurisdiction over the locks between the Saranac river and Lower Saranac lake, and between Lower Saranac lake and Middle Saranac lake in the county of Franklin.

STATE ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.

FRANK M. WILLIAMS.

The State Engineer along with his other prescribed duties has general supervision of the engineering department of the canals of the State. He makes surveys, maps, plans, specifications and estimates for canal and terminal improvement, and is in charge of the construction work.

CANAL BOARD.

The Canal Board is composed of the following: JEREMIAH WOOD, Lieutenant-Governor. JOHN J. LYONS, Secretary of State.

JAMES A. WENDELL, Comptroller.

N. MONROE MARSHALL, Treasurer.

CHARLES D. NEWTON, Attorney-General.

FRANK M. WILLIAMS. State Engineer.

CHARLES L. CADLE, Superintendent of Public Works.

The Board has general charge over all matters relating to the canals of the State. Meetings are held in the State Comptroller's office, Telephone Building, Albany, from time to time during the year for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the Board DIVISIONS OF CANAL SYSTEM.

The canals of this State are divided into the following divisions:

EASTERN DIVISION.

THE FIRST CANALS.

The first attempt to improve the State's inland waterways was undertaken by private companies chartered in 1792. A portion of the series of locks built by the Inland Navigation Company at Little Falls is still in place.

The first State canal construction work was begun on July 4, 1817, at Rome, and the Eric, or main branch, was completed in 1825.

The original Eric canal had a bottom width of 28 feet, a width at water surface of 40 feet, with a 4-foot depth of water. This is commonly referred to as the "Clinton Ditch." The first boats carried 75 tons burden.

The original Champlain Canal was begun in 1817 and finished in 1823; the original Oswego Canal was begun in 1825 and finished in 1828; and the original Cayuga and Seneca Canal was constructed between 1826 and 1828. These three canals were of the same dimension as the first Eric.

ENLARGEMENTS.

The first enlargement work on the Eric Canal was commenced in 1836 and completed in 1862. The bottom width was increased to a maximum of 56 feet, and at water line to 70 feet, with a depth of 7 feet. In 1896 the work of deepening the Eric Canal to 9 feet was begun, but was completed only at disconnected localities.

In 1860 the widening of the Champlain Canal so as to give 35 feet and 50 feet widths, respectively, at the bottom and water line, and a depth of 5 feet, was authorised. In 1870, the increase of these widths to 44 feet and 58 feet, respectively, with a depth of 7 feet, was directed, but the improvement was not completed. Afurther enlargement begun in 1896, to provide a depth of 7 feet, was not progressed to completion.

The first enlargement of the Oswego Canal was commenced in 1852 and completed ten years later. A channel of 52 feet and 70 feet in width, respectively, at the bottom and surface with a depth of 7 feet was provided. In 1896 the improvement or one canal to a depth of 9 feet was begun but not completed.

In 1854, the first enlargement of the Cayuga and Seneca Canal was undertaken. It was completed in 1862. This provided a channel 7 feet deep with a bottom width of 52½ feet and a surface width of 70 feet.

THE BARGE CANAL IMPROVEMENT.

The project known as the Barge Canal improvement providing for the enlargement of the Eric, Oswego and Champlain canals, authorized in 1903, was actually commenced in April, 1904.

In 1909, a similar improvement of the Cayuga and Seneca Canal was directed.

In 1916 the improved Champlain Canal for its entire length from Troy to Whitehall was placed in commission for the first time.

The canal route from Troy to Oswego via the improved Erie and Oswego canals was first used in 1917.

The through route of the improved Erie Canal from Troy to Buffalo was opened in 1918.

The building of terminal docks and the furnishing of freight handling facilities along the improved canals was authorised in 1911, and the work was begun in the following year.

Tolls were imposed by the State for the use of the canals previous to 1882, when they were abolished by constitutional amendment.

The total cost to the State for the construction, repair, maintenance and operation of the Eric Canal, up to and including the year 1882, was $78,862,154.

The revenues from the Eric Canal received by the State and deposited in the treasury up to the close of the year 1882, when tolls were abolished, amounted to $121,461,871, leaving a net profit to the State, on account of the Eric Canal up to that year, of $42.599.718.

The total amount of tolls collected on all of the canals previous to 1882 was $135,418,325. This included several lateral canals abandoned in 1880.

After deducting the sums expended on canal improvements and repairs between 1882 and 1899, there remained at the beginning of the so-called Barge Canal improvement, in 1904, a balance to the credit of the Eric Canal of something more than $20,000,000.

^{*} By the provisions of chapter 115 of the Laws of 1903, liquor tax rates were increased fifty per cent, in effect April 2, 1903.

† By the provisions of chapter 911 of the Laws of 1920 the certificate year was changed to correspond with the fiscal year of the State. Certificates issued October 1, 1919, by reason of Federal prohibition, were issued for a four months period, excepting pharmacists', alcohol, and fruit growers' certificates, accounting for the large decrease in revenue.
